

Ἄλληλουϊάριον
(εἰς σύντομον μέλος)

Ἦχος ᾠδ' Γα ρ

The image displays a musical score for the Alleluia, written in a traditional Greek notation style. The score is organized into five horizontal lines of music. Each line begins with a red numeral indicating the starting note (e.g., 22, 16, 6, 1, 1). The notes are represented by black symbols with red stems and flags, and are placed on a series of horizontal lines. Below the musical notation, the corresponding Greek letters are written in black. The letters are: a, a, a, λλη η η η η η η λσ σ; ι ι ι α Α α α α α λλη η η η; η η λσ σ ι ι ι α Α α α α; λλη η η η λσ σ σ σ ι ι ι ι ι; a. The letters are arranged in a way that suggests a specific melodic contour. A large, ornate watermark is visible in the background, featuring a golden wreath and a blue cross with a white center, set against a light blue background.
